

Business Meeting Notes, December 8, 2025

Present: Brent, Kris, April, Jamie, Dee, Heather H., Patrick, Susan

The meeting opened at 13:22 with the Serenity Prayer.

Secretary: (Caroline) absent. Notes from October/November were emailed to Brent, who was able to read them to the group and get them approved.

Motion to accept: Approved

Kris – 1st; Brent – 2nd. Unanimously passed.

GSR: (Pete): (absent): Sherri has a report for us for GSR. She attended the conference and she has not had a chance to write up the notes yet, but she will get them to Brent. The only pressing issue right now is the geo-fencing, which prevents International AA members from accessing the Area 72 website. That will be put off for discussion until the January 2026 quarterly. Sherri states she resigned as alternate GSR, and she is more than happy to help the group in any way possible moving forward. But she can no longer serve the group. The group expressed their overwhelming gratitude to Sherri for all that she has done both in her official capacity at GSR and as an alternate, her service to the group, and all that she has provided to us.

Motion to accept:

Dee - 1st; Brent – 2nd. Unanimously passed.

Treasurer: (Patrick): Provided the Treasurer's report in verbal form.

Starting balance is $536.29. $149.82 in 7th Tradition donations (4). $16.00 BofA Service Fee.
Ending balance is $670.11.

Motion to accept:

Motion to accept:

Dee; - 1st; Brent – 2nd; Unanimously approved

Webmaster (Brent): Brent stated he has not kept up really well on getting things posted, and then Sherri was able to post some things related to posting the last month's meetings. Brent is not clear if Secretary Caroline has sent last month's meeting minutes or not. He remembers they have been in contact about them.

Brent stated he will also work on changing the scripts and updating them as needed with new language and get them posted on the website.

Motion made to accept the Service Coordinator Report:

Cate – 1st; Dee – 2nd; Unanimously approved.

Birthdays and Milestones (Kris): Kris presented that there were 14/15 birthdays. She shared a visual of the birthdays and milestones that she sent out. She reports it was the best month she has had since she started doing this, and she even had to buy more postage. She really enjoys doing the position. Kris will send the report to Brent for Caroline's information and for the meeting notes.

Years:

Brent – 1st; Partrick – 2nd; Unanimously approved.

Chair Reports:

Sunday (April): The meetings have been going well. It's never as big as Saturdays, but sometimes there are as many as 35 people.

Monday (Dee). Dee states that the Monday meetings have been going well. He states the meetings are going well. There are 25-35 people at each meeting. All spots for service are filled. Things are going well.

Tuesday (Kris): Kris states attendance is going well. She has had about the same number of people, 25-35 people. She has been working on finding speakers. She says she did the speaking position herself the other day and stated that she was not sure if that was correct or not, but she did it anyway. April gave kudos for how well the meetings are going.

Wednesday (Caroline) – absent. Connectivity issues with the internet.

Thursday (Laura) - Absent.

Friday (Kris) – Kris reports that things are continuing to go well, the same number of people, and things are going well. No bombers! The other day, she says she didn't have to even call on anyone to share.

Saturday (Brent) – Brent states that Saturdays have been great. He says that they are getting 35-40 people at the meetings, which has been really great. April stated yes, more people seem to be coming on Saturday, and at one point today, she counted 42 people. Brent states that at one point, he was tired of finding speakers, but things are going well, and he signed up again to do service on Saturdays.

Motion to accept the weekly meeting chair reports:
